Policy ID & Version: AYC-POL-HR-003 | v1.0
Effective Date: 2025-09-01
Prepared By: HR Department
Confidentiality & Applicable to: Company Internal Use Only

1. Purpose

To define the structure and process of salary payment and related compensation matters to ensure transparency, financial compliance, and support for employee trust and performance.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees of aYc Analytics Pvt Ltd (including full-time, probationary, and interns) whose employment is governed by the Company's Employment Agreement.

3. Compensation Components

A. Base Salary

- Defined in Exhibit A: Compensation Details of the Employment Agreement.
- Includes basic pay, statutory allowances (e.g., HRA, travel), and any variable components, if applicable.

B. Bonuses / Performance Rewards

- Performance bonuses, incentives, or recognition payouts may be granted at the Company's discretion.
- Employees who contribute to the Company's core product or IP may be eligible for additional financial recognition or benefits, subject to a separate Product Revenue Sharing Agreement once formalized.

📌 Note: Specific terms for product-linked incentives will be governed by the upcoming separate agreement to be shared with eligible employees upon launch.

C. Reimbursements

- Reimbursable expenses (e.g. travel, project resources) must follow the Expense Reimbursement Guidelines and be supported by valid bills.

4. Roles and Responsibilities

Role	Responsibility
HR Department	Maintains compensation records, coordinates with Finance, and communicates pay-related matters to employees.
Finance Team	Calculates payroll, ensures statutory deductions (TDS, PF, etc.), and initiates salary transfers through approved channels.
Department Heads	Keep HR informed of any updates impacting payroll, such as promotions, exits, attendance issues, or leaves.
Employees	Must submit correct personal, PAN, and bank details. Report any changes or salary discrepancies promptly to HR.

5. Payroll Procedures

1. Salary Structure Definition
   - Defined in Exhibit A during onboarding.
   - Subject to revision based on performance, appraisal cycles, and business conditions.
2. Attendance and Data Finalization
   - Monthly attendance, leave, and adjustments are finalized by the end of each month.
3. Payroll Processing & Disbursal
   - Payroll is processed within the first few business days of the following month.
   - Salaries are usually credited by the last working day of the month, barring exceptions.
   - In case of delays, official communication will be issued.
4. Payslips
   - Digital payslips are shared through HRMS/email.
   - Discrepancies must be reported to HR within 3 business days.
5. Final Settlement
   - Cleared within 40 calendar days of exit, subject to all clearance procedures.

6. Exceptions

- Special Packages:
  Unique salary structures (e.g., for directors, equity-holders) require prior written approval from the CEO and HR.
- Operational Adjustments:
  Payroll processing or credit timelines may vary due to bank holidays, tech issues, or internal realignments.
  Employees will be notified in advance by HR/Finance.

7. Transitional Clause for Existing Employees

As a startup, aYc Analytics acknowledges early-stage limitations in enforcing salary deductions or regular overtime payouts.
These transitional cases are managed as follows:

A. Negative Leave Adjustments

- Past negative leave balances will be reviewed during final settlement.
- Deductions, if any, will be communicated and applied at that time.

B. Overtime Payouts

- Validated overtime may be compensated quarterly or as per HR & Finance feasibility.
- Managers must approve logged hours in a timely manner.

📌 Note: These transitional practices are not permanent. Policy enforcement will become regular as HRMS automation completes.
