Policy ID & Version: AYC-POL-HR-005| v1.0
Effective Date: 2025-09-01
Prepared By: HR Department
Confidentiality and Applicable to: Company Internal Use Only

1. Purpose

To define standardized procedures for employee exit—voluntary or involuntary—ensuring compliance, fairness, legal protection, and efficient knowledge transfer.

2. Scope

Applies to all employees of aYc Analytics Pvt Ltd, including:

- Interns/trainees
- Probationary employees
- Confirmed (permanent) employees

3. Status-Based Termination Rights

A. Interns / Trainees

- The intern may resign with 15 days' prior notice.
- The Company may terminate the internship without notice or stipend in lieu, in the event of misconduct (per Internship Clause 12).

B. Probationary Employees

- May be terminated without any notice or assigned reason, as per Clause 3 of the Employment Agreement.
- However, if a probationary employee wishes to resign, they must serve a minimum of 20 days' notice to allow for team continuity and knowledge transfer. Early exits without this notice may impact clearance timelines.

C. Confirmed Employees

- May be terminated with 30 days' prior written notice or salary in lieu, per Employment Agreement Clause 15.
- For cause (misconduct), company must:
    1. Issue a First Warning Letter (documenting specific concerns and improvement expectations).
    2. If no improvement, issue a Final Warning Letter, followed by immediate/summary termination only on valid grounds.
    3. Maintain proper documentation to justify termination legally.

'Misconduct or Violation' shall have the following meaning:*
1. Performance-based issues (e.g., persistent delays, poor output)
2. Discipline-related infractions (e.g., attendance violations, policy non-compliance)

- Warning Process:
  - 1st Written Warning: Citing the issue and improvement expectations.
  - 2nd Written Warning: If no improvement, further escalation with a final warning.
  - 3rd Written Warning: If violations persist, may trigger immediate dismissal as defined under "misconduct."

4. Pre-Exit Performance Process

These steps protect both parties and document any performance issues:

1. Weekly Reports & Monthly Scoring
2. Performance Review: Underperformance triggers:
   - Discussion meeting with Team Lead
   - Possible Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) may be introduced upon underperformance.
3. Warning Letters:
   - First Warning: Verbal + written summary.
   - Final Warning: Written, outlining consequences.
4. Termination Review: Review by HR + Department Head before any confirmed employee's termination.

5. Resignation Process (Voluntary Exit)

1. Submit Resignation Letter with 30-day notice (varies for interns/probationers per above).
2. HR confirms Last Working Day via acknowledgment letter.
3. Begin Exit Formalities and Clearance procedures.

Note: Employees must adhere to the applicable resignation notice period based on their employment type, as summarized below.

| Employee Type | Resignation Notice Required | Termination Notice by Company | Summary Termination for Misconduct |
|---|---|---|---|
| Intern | 15 days | Not required | Allowed (without stipend) |
| Probationary | 20 days | Not required | Allowed (after review) |
| Confirmed Employee | 30 days | 30 days or salary in lieu | Allowed (after warnings & review) |

6. Exit Formalities

A. Resignation/Termination Acceptance
- Formal letter of acceptance issued by HR with exit plan details.

B. Clearance Process
- Employee must obtain department-wise sign-offs:
  - IT, Admin, Finance, Reporting Manager

C. Exit Interview
- Conducted by HR
- Confidential feedback collected and stored

7. Final Settlement & Handover

1. HR verifies all documentation and clearances.
2. Final dues calculated (salary, leave encashment, reimbursements).
3. Settlement processed within 45 calendar days from last working day.
4. Acknowledgement of payout collected.
5. Exit formally recorded by HR.

8. Roles & Responsibilities

| Role | Responsibility |
|---|---|
| Employee | Submit resignation and compliance with exit formalities. |
| Team Lead / HOD | Monitor performance, inform HR of warnings or exits |
| HR Department | Manage resignations, enforce SOP, conduct exit interview and clearance |
| Finance Team | Final settlement calculations and payout compliance |

9. Exceptions

- For serious misconduct, aYc Analytics reserves the right to summarily terminate employment (including interns) without notice or compensation, subject to legal review.
- Such cases must be documented and approved by the HR and legal team before execution.

10. Amendment & Review

This policy is subject to annual review or earlier in case of organizational/legal updates. Amendments must be approved by the Head of HR and the Managing Director, and shall be communicated internally via HRMS or email.
