1. Purpose

This policy outlines the ethical standards, workplace behavior, and appearance expectations that reflect the values and culture of aYc Analytics Pvt Ltd. It fosters a respectful, professional, and inclusive work environment aligned with organizational goals and compliance standards.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all internal employees (permanent, probationary, interns, contractual) of aYc Analytics Pvt Ltd. External vendors or partners may have separate guidelines under their contract or project agreement.

3. Core Guidelines and Principles

- Integrity: Integrity and honesty are fundamental principles that underpin ethical behaviour and contribute to the creation of a trustworthy and positive work environment. All employees are expected to act with integrity and honesty in all business interactions. This includes being truthful and transparent in communication, avoiding conflicts of interest, and reporting any unethical behaviour. All Employees shall act in conformity with professional standards of personal integrity, honesty & ethical conduct, especially when on Company's business, at Company sponsored events, or when representing the Company. Ethical conduct is one that is free from fraud & deception and includes actual or potential conflicts of interest between personal advantages as against organization's needs and/or values..
- Compliance: Compliance with laws and regulations is a crucial aspect of any organization's operations. It ensures that businesses operate within the legal framework, maintain ethical standards, and fulfil their responsibilities to various stakeholders. All employees must comply with all applicable laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which aYc Analytics operates. Any violation of laws or regulations may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment and legal action.
- Respect: aYc Analytics respects human rights everywhere it works and while doing business with others. aYc Analytics does not employ children at the workplaces. The Company also does not use forced labour in any form.
- Conflict of Interest: Employees must avoid situations where personal, financial, or external interests could influence—or appear to influence their professional judgment. To maintain fairness and trust, employees are expected to:
    - Disclose promptly any actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest to management.
    - Avoid using their position for personal gain or to benefit friends, family, or associates.
    - Not participate in decisions where they or close relations may directly or indirectly benefit.
    - Seek prior approval before engaging in outside employment, business, or investments that may conflict with the Company's interests.
