1. Purpose

To promote a professional image while ensuring comfort and cultural sensitivity, aYc Analytics expects all employees to follow a smart, tidy, and appropriate dress code based on the following guidelines:

2. Core Guidelines and Principles

A. General Appearance Standards (All Employees)

- Employees must wear clean, well-fitted, and presentable attire reflecting professionalism.
- ID cards must be visibly worn—either using a neck lanyard or a retractable holder clipped to clothing.
- Hair must be kept well-groomed. If long hair tends to interfere with work or pose safety/distraction issues, employees are advised to tie it neatly.

B. Male Dress Code

- Formal attire is expected on weekdays.
- Acceptable clothing includes:
    - Collared formal shirts
    - Trousers/formal pants (no jeans or cargo pants or shorts)
    - Closed formal shoes or boots
    - Belts must be worn
    - Formal shoes, covered footwear is encouraged (no floaters or slippers)
    - Smart Business Casuals can be worn on Fridays only.

C. Female Dress Code

- Smart western or formal Indian attire is acceptable.
- Acceptable clothing includes:
    - Western: Formal tops/blouses with trousers or formal skirts
    - Indian: Sarees, salwar suits, kurtis with leggings or formal churidars
    - Covered footwear is encouraged; no flip-flops or sandals for office floors or client meetings.
    - Smart Business Casuals can be worn on Fridays only.

If the dress code policy contravenes the prescriptions of your faith or that it is offensive to you in any way, please contact Human Resources.

Note: The company reserves the right to request a change of attire if it is deemed inappropriate, excessively revealing, or inconsistent with a professional work environment. Such assessment will be made in a respectful and non-discriminatory manner by HR.
